NLP Master Practitioner

certified by INLPTA and endorsed by ILM

At Master Practitioner, you take your NLP skills to a new level. By building on and developing further what you discovered at Practitioner, you learn the thinking behind the models and techniques and how to integrate and refine your skills. This enables you to become more confident and flexible in your applications of NLP.

This course is all about Mastery in the field of NLP and you will also have the opportunity to apply NLP to your own field of interest, whether it be business, coaching, personal growth or sport.

Who is this course for?

- Everyone who wants to learn more and continue growing after the NLP Practitioner
- Business leaders and managers who want to be able to create their own bespoke NLP solutions for their business
- Coaches and therapists who want to develop an in depth understanding of NLP in change work and be able to design tailored interventions for their clients
- Those working in the charity and public sector who want to be able to use NLP for long lasting change and growth

At the end of this course you will be able to:

- Use advanced language patterns and quantum linguistics to bring about change in yourself and others
- Elicit and utilise values in change work
- Conduct a personal breakthrough session
- Adapt the models and techniques to a variety of contexts
- Recognise and work with Metaprogrammes, our unconscious filters and drivers
- Understand Prime Concerns and how to work with them
- Use hypnosis in change work
- Apply NLP to health and healing
- Take your coaching skills to a higher level
- Model and coach excellence including completing your own modelling project in an area of interest for you.
